Canada's Great Loss

Canada is now undergoing one of the saddest experiences in her history.

She has lost her greatest statesman, and not only does a great political party mourn the loss of the hand that guided it through so many vicissitudes, but the nation feels keenly that a great calamity has befallen her.

Sir John Macdonald has been so intimately associated with the history of Canada for nearly half a century that his name is now a household word in every home.

Every great achievement made by Canada during the last fifty years bears the imprint of his far-reaching vision, patriotism, and earnest desire for her advancement, and the development of her varied resources.

Every true Canadian feels that the father of his country has passed away, and he wonders if among the eminent men in our Parliament there is one who can in every respect fill the place of the great leader.

The great men of Canada seem to die with each other in their efforts to pay the highest tribute to the many virtues of the great statesman, and the messages of sympathy that pour in upon the bereaved family, together with the sorrow that permeates the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, bear the strongest proof that the life now ended was a great and glorious one, and his memory will be cherished by a grateful people when those who are now bowed down with grief are no more.

SIR HECTOR LANGEVIN.

The Liberals are afraid that they will not have a leg to stand on when the Tarte investigation is completed, and therefore they are now sailing into Sir Hector Langevin for all they are worth.

This is the usual Galt practice. They are never willing to give an opponent a fair trial before they condemn him.

The contention that he should be dismissed from the Cabinet till the matter is cleared up is a childish one. If such a precedent were established the only thing that the Opposition would have to do in order to overthrow the Government would be to prefer some trivial charge against each of the members and they would have to step down and out. No administration could exist twenty-four hours under such a condition of affairs.—Guelph Herald.

VIDEON, Man., June 5.—James McVicar, who recently took up land on 12, 24, committed suicide some time during the night at Stratton's north ranch about eighteen miles south of Virden. From appearances he attempted to drown himself in a small lake near his house; failing in this he returned to the house and, procuring a rope, he left home and went some three miles across the country to a vacant house, where he hung himself to the rafter. His family arrived from Moosomin a few days ago, and he was apparently in good circumstances. There is no reason assigned for his rash act.

HEALTH IN HERBS.

Health-giving herbs, barks, roots, and berries are carefully combined in Burdock Bitters, which regulate the secretions, purify the blood, and renovate and strengthen the entire system. Price $1 a bottle, six for $5. Less than 1 cent a dose.

Little Local Links in the Town's Chain of History.

QU'APPELLE.

—We have had considerable rain during the past two weeks, and crops are growing remarkably well.

—The horse race on Saturday was quite a surprise to some of our local sports. "Sugarfoot" winning easily.

—Corpl. Bamann has been removed to Fort Qu'Appelle, to take charge of the police detachment there, and Corpl. Parrett takes his place here.

—Mrs. McGreevy and child from London, Ont., and Mrs. Miles, of Chicago, are visiting Mrs. Charles Miles, and expect to remain here for the summer.

—Mr. W. Syme Redpath returned to town on Tuesday. He was census enumerator in one of the north sub-districts, and has completed his work.

—The Government Telegraph office in the North-West will be closed during the burial of Sir John Macdonald, by order of Mr. Hartley Gibson, district superintendent.

—A special sitting of the Supreme Court Judicial District of Eastern Assiniboia will be held at Grenfell on Wednesday, 24th inst., Hon. Mr. Justice Wetmore presiding.

—On Monday last Mr. R. Scott, of Indian Head, had one of his valuable team horses poisoned, by getting strychnine, where it had been deposited for gophers. Mr. Clark, V.S., of this place, was sent for the following day and saved the animal.

—The various Associations of Patrons of Industry in the neighborhood propose holding a picnic at the lake, Fort Qu'Appelle, on Friday, June 19th. The usual programme of sports, speeches, etc., will be given. All from town and country are cordially invited to attend.

—The prospecting party that left here some time ago for Edmonton have reached their destination, in safety. The only incident worthy of note on the trip was an encounter with a bear; the party got the worst of it, and the bear is now happy. They are busy washing out gold on the banks of the Saskatchewan.

—Mr. James Smith has wheat 18 inches high. A visit to the farm would convince anyone that it is good farming, that pays. Mr. R. S. Ross has also shown us some wheat over 18 inches long, and he says his whole field is equally good, who says the Qu'Appelle district will not raise grain?

—The Presbyterian Church in Canada now holds regular examinations in higher religious instruction in January of each year at as many centres in each presbytery as the convenience of candidates may require. The Qu'Appelle candidates made a very creditable showing at last examination, and with the present staff of teachers much better results may confidently be looked for. THE KEY STONE.

Regular action of the bowels is the key stone of health. The use of B.B.R. insured B. and cured constipation, dyspepsia, etc. Mrs. F. Williams, 415 River Street, Toronto writes: "I have used your Burdock Blood Bitters for constipation and pain in the head with great success. I improved from the second dose."

NEW KINDS OF WHEAT.

OTTAWA, June 4.—The committee on agriculture and colonization met today to hear a statement from Prof. Saunders of the practical operations of the Central and other experimental farms. During the last year the distribution of seed wheat in Manitoba and the Territories has in the main proved very satisfactory. The Ladoga wheat shows not only the advantage of ripening ten days earlier than the Red Fyfe of former years, but is proving prolific in growth and of superior strength. Last harvest John Plaxton, at Prince Albert, threshed 172 bushels of Ladoga wheat, the product of five acres, which weighed 66½ lb. to the bushel. The prolific yield, in a latitude so far north, was most encouraging, and goes to show that our northern limits for profitable wheat growing is not yet determined. Another cereal now being tried on the experimental farms is Gehon wheat, the origin of which is in Canada as follows: Three years ago the Minister of Agriculture conceived the idea that wheat grown at the altitudes of 1,600 and 1,700 feet on the Himalaya Mountains in India might likely prove a hardy variety for northern latitudes here, and accordingly applied to Lord Dufferin to procure some of the said wheat from the altitudes named. The viceroy of India interested himself in the matter and ordered the forwarding of some seed packages from Gehon, hence the name Gehon wheat has been tried upon all the experimental farms, but the best results obtained in yield and quality have been at Indian Head farm, N.W.T. It is a heavy wheat, very productive, and is only two days later in ripening than Ladoga.

Last year boxes containing each 100 tree slips were distributed among the agriculturalists in the Territories. These slips were produced from seeds collected and plants of kinds indigenous to these parts, and satisfactory results are indicated.

Besides these indigenous trees, experiments already tried indicate that "hard woods," such as elm, walnut, etc., will thrive in the North-West. Superintendent Saunders attached very much importance to the outcome of the forestry experiments, for upon their success depends the solution of very important problems as to the future of the prairie lands in the North-west.

HOW TO GROW TOMATOS TO PERFECTION.

Mr. C. L. Allen writes in the American Agriculturist as follows on this subject: Because the general nature of the tomato yields bountifully with seemingly little care and attention, the general impression prevails that the plant requires but little attention. This is a sad mistake, for there is not a vegetable in a garden that so gross a feeder, nor one that so readily pays for all the food and care given as the tomato. To grow it to the greatest perfection, the hills should be dug out to the depth of two and a half feet; at the bottom there should be a half bushel of well-rotted manure; above this let the soil be an equal mixture of loam and manure thoroughly mixed. The hills should be at least six feet apart. Let the situation be open, warm, airy. When the fruit begins to set, mulch with clean straw or very small brush. Under these conditions six plants will furnish sufficient tomatoes for a family of twelve persons. Whatever variety may be planted in this manner, the result will show specimens for size, smoothness, and excellent properties, unknown to the variety when grown in the ordinary manner.—Canadian Horticulturist.

TORONTO, June 5.—The Grand Master of Masons of the Grand Lodge of Canada, M.W. Bro. J. Ross Robertson, of Toronto, has issued a circular to four hundred lodges under his jurisdiction, suggesting that the 24th inst., which is the festival of St. John the Baptist, be observed as Decoration Day in the craft, and also that members should attend divine service on the Sunday following. Collections are to be devoted to whatever charitable object may be selected by the respective lodges.

OTTAWA, June 3.—Purdell's friends, in despair of finding the stolen body of Glegg's ex-member, have now offered an increased reward of $1,000. A Gleggian in town this morning says there is little likelihood of the desperate man giving up the body for such a sum unless it were accompanied with the promise "and no questions asked."

MONTREAL, June 3.—The funeral of the late Sir A. A. Dorion, Chief Justice of Quebec, took place this morning, and was one of the largest and most impressive ever witnessed in Montreal. Judges of the court of Queen's bench, over which the deceased has presided, acted as pallbearers; judges of all courts in their robes of office followed the hearse; and behind them came members of the bar to the number of several hundred also in their robes, the acting premier of the province and members of the Provincial Government, mayor and members of the city council and members of St. Jean Baptiste and other national organizations. Mass was celebrated at Notre Dame church by Archbishop Fabre. After the services the cortege reformed and to the tolling of the cathedral bells proceeded to the Roman Catholic cemetery where the remains of Quebec's great chief justice were laid to rest.

"It is humiliating," says the Detroit Free Press, "that the most staggering truths, told in the most eloquent way, concerning the so-called Indian problem, come from the intelligent leaders of the Indians themselves. They are scathing in their arraignment of the Government for the thousands of breaches of faith that have marked the Indian policy of the country for a century. The Canadians seem to have no trouble in dealing with the closely allied tribes on their side of the border, and this seems to be simply because the Canadians have been just and honest." The Detroit Free Press is not the only journal in the United States to honestly recognize the wisdom of our Government's Indian policy. The republic does not, however, seem to profit by Canada's example. Our plan is not patented.

Auction Sale of Valuable Farming Lands in the Edmonton District.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the Papageas Indian Reserve, comprising some 40 sections, in townships 31 and 32, ranges 28 and 24 West of the 4th initial Meridian, will be offered for sale by public auction at the Alberta Hotel, Calgary, Alberta, on the second day of July, 1891, at 10 o'clock a.m.

This Reserve, which is situated about 15 miles to the South of the flourishing town of Edmonton, contains some fine agricultural land; the soil throughout is rich in loam, and in a greater portion of it there is a plentiful supply of wood and water. It has been subdivided into sections, to accord with the system under which adjoining lands have been surveyed, and each section has been carefully inspected and reported upon by a competent surveyor. Copies of these reports, with accompanying plans, can be had at any of the Dominion Land Offices in Manitoba or the Territories, or from the Indian Commissioner, Regina.

The Reserve is traversed by the Calgary and Edmonton Railway, now about completed, and a station on that line will probably be located at some point within or near to its boundaries.

This sale will afford an opportunity for those in quest of land to purchase good farms at reasonable figures, or to acquire a block of land in a district where land is at most certain to increase in value.

Terms of the sale:—The purchaser must at the time of sale pay one-fifth of the purchase money, the balance in four equal annual instalments, with interest at 6 per cent. per annum. Should the purchaser fail to complete the terms of sale the 50 per cent. purchase money will be forfeited by him.

Unconditional patents will be issued for the lands sold.
